

UW System Fall Prevention Symposium
June 5-6, 2019
UW-Platteville Russell Hall, Room 110

Day 1: June 5

- 8:30am-8:40am Registration/Welcome: Paige Smith, Vice Chancellor for Administrative Services and Chief of Staff, Internal Relations, UW-Platteville
- 8:40am-8:50am Explanation of activities: Amy Spohn, UW System and Mark Miner, UW-Platteville
- 9:00am-9:45am Discuss the challenges and opportunities to prevent falls on campus facilities:
1. Exposure/rationale
  2. Past prevention efforts
  3. New/present efforts
  4. Future focus/process
- 9:45am-10:00am Break
- 10:00am-12:00pm John Corriveau Lighthouse Safety: The science of preventing falls and the application of regulations and best practices in the development of a campus related fall prevention strategies.
- 12:00pm-1:00pm Lunch- on your own.
- 1:00pm-4:00pm John Corriveau Lighthouse Safety: The science of preventing falls and the application of regulations and best practices in the development of campus related fall prevention strategies (continued from the morning session).
- 4:00pm-5:00pm Open discussion and dismiss

Day 2: June 6

- 8:00am-8:15am Explanation of activities: Mark Miner, UW-Platteville
- 8:15am-8:45am Review the fall exposure assessment tool and discuss common fall exposures on campuses: Amy Spohn, UW System
- 8:00am-8:45am Application examples of fall prevention techniques and procedures.
1. Training/education
  2. Procedures
  3. Equipment/hardware
- 8:45am-9:00am Break
- 9:00am-9:30am Group break out session: Discuss exposure challenges and solutions
- 9:30am-12:00pm Large group discussion on exposure challenges and solutions and follow up
- 12:00pm-1:00pm Dismiss